ALABAMA PRESIDENT DR. STUART R. BELL

Dr. Stuart R. Bell became the 29th president of The University of Alabama on July 15, 2015. Founded in 1831, the University is the state's flagship and a student-centered, comprehensive research university.

Dr. Bell has broad administrative experience and is a nearly 30-year veteran of higher education. He previously served at UA for 16 years where he founded and directed an interdisciplinary research center.

"I certainly look forward to leading this university as its next president and working alongside the many men and women who have made it a great university today and who will also make it a great university in the future," Bell said on the day he was named UA president. "It's just great to be here in Tuscaloosa, and it's great to be in Alabama and to, once again, be able to say Roll Tide!"

Immediately prior to becoming UA's president, Dr. Bell was executive vice president and provost at Louisiana State University. During Dr. Bell's tenure there and earlier at the University of Kansas, where he served as dean of its College of Engineering, those institutions opened new facilities, and student recruitment, retention and success were emphasized.

First joining UA in 1986 as an assistant professor in the UA College of Engineering's department of mechanical engineering, Dr. Bell was named department head nine years later.

With research interest in combustion engines, Dr. Bell has expertise in alternative fuels for engines, innovative engine designs and modeling of engine and engine processes. He directed UA's Center for Advanced Vehicle Technologies.

Dr. Bell was awarded the Society of Automotive Engineers' Ralph Teetor Award for Outstanding Contributions to Research and Teaching in 1988. He was presented the T. Morris Hackney Faculty Leadership Award for the UA College of Engineering in 2001, and, in 2005, he received the Richard S. Woodbury Award from the American Society of Mechanical Engineers.

A native of Abilene, Texas, Dr. Bell earned a nuclear engineering degree from Texas A&M University in 1979. He earned his master's and doctorate degrees in mechanical engineering from Texas A&M in 1981 and 1986, respectively.

He and his wife, Susan, have three adult children, Stuart, Stacy and Stephen.

ONE OF AMERICA'S TOP RANKED UNIVERSITIES

BILL BATTLE

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

William R. "Bill" Battle is in his third year as Director of Athletics at The University of Alabama. Battle took over the job on Friday, March 22, 2013, succeeding Mal Moore who had held the position since November, 1999. Battle joined the Crimson Tide after a career as a college football coach and entrepreneur that was consistently hallmarked by innovation and foresight.

A native of Birmingham, Ala., Battle attended The University of Alabama on a football scholarship and enjoyed a successful playing career as a three-year starter at end for the Crimson Tide under legendary head coach Paul "Bear" Bryant from 1960-62. Battle was a member of Bryant's first national championship team at Alabama in 1961. Generally regarded as the team's best end throughout his playing career, Battle came to Tuscaloosa after starring in three sports at Birmingham's West End High School.

An excellent student, Battle earned a bachelor's degree in Biology (minor in Psychology) from The University of Alabama in 1963 and a master's degree in Education from The University of Oklahoma in 1964. He was an Academic All-SEC selection as a senior in 1962 and was selected to play in the Senior Bowl all-star game in Mobile, Ala., in January of 1963. He was named first team tight end and second team defensive end on The University of Alabama All-Decade Team of the 1960s.

Battle entered the coaching profession as a graduate assistant at The University of Oklahoma in 1963 under famed head coach Bud Wilkinson. In 1964 and 1965, he served as an assistant coach at the United States Military Academy while serving a two-year military tour. In 1966, he moved on to the University of Tennessee, where he served as an assistant coach under head coach Doug Dickey for four seasons (1966-69) until he was named head coach of the Volunteers in 1970. When he was named head coach, Battle was the youngest head coach in college football at the age of 28.

During his seven-year tenure as head coach (1970-76), Battle's teams went 59-22-2, finished three seasons ranked in the nation's top 10 among five top-20 finishes and won four out of five bowl games. Battle's Tennessee teams won 11 games once (1970) and at least 10 games in three different seasons (1970, 1971 and 1972). His first Tennessee team finished the season ranked fourth in both national polls. His 1971 team finished ranked ninth in both national polls and the 1972 Tennessee squad finished ranked eighth by the Associated Press and 11th in the Coaches' poll.

Battle began a career in the private sector after his coaching career ended. He held various positions within Circle S Industries in Selma, Ala., and served as president of two different companies, as well as vice chairman of the Circle S Holding Company Board. During his six years at Circle S, the organization grew from two companies earning $12 million in annual sales to 10 companies earning $60 million.

Battle founded The Collegiate Licensing Company (CLC) in 1981, and served as president and Chief Executive Officer (CEO) until 2002. He also served as chairman of the board of Licensing Partners International (LPI), which was created in 2001 to represent the licensing interests of non-collegiate sports properties, as well as corporate and entertainment properties.

A 1981 Inductee into the Alabama Sports Hall of Fame, Battle was inducted as the first member of the charter class of the National Collegiate Licensing Association Hall of Fame in 2000. He was the recipient of the 2005 Paul W. Bryant Alumni Athlete Award at The University of Alabama and was inducted into the International Licensing Industry Merchandisers' Association (ULMA) Hall of Fame in 2008.

Battle received a National Football Foundation award in December 2008 for Outstanding Contributions to Amateur Football. In June 2010, Bill was inducted into the National Association of Collegiate Marketing Administrators' (NACMA) Hall of Fame. He was inducted into the Tennessee Sports Hall of Fame, receiving its Lifetime Achievement Award in 2011. He currently serves on the boards of the Bryant-Jordan Student-Athlete Foundation, The University of Alabama A-Club Educational & Charitable Foundation, the Crimson Tide Foundation, and the National Football Foundation.

Battle's wife, Mary, is a summa cum laude graduate of the University of Texas School of Nursing with a Bachelor of Science degree in nursing. She earned a Master of Science in healthcare administration from the University of Alabama-Birmingham. For many years Mary worked in the healthcare industry both in the clinical setting and for healthcare corporations that developed and managed physician provider networks including the development of strategically significant relationships with payors and business and industry.

Mary currently serves on the Arthritis Foundation National Board of Directors and is the chairperson of the Arthritis Foundation Leadership Council for the Birmingham market. She is also a member of the Volunteer Engagement Task Team for the Arthritis Foundation. In addition, Mary is an inaugural member of the UAB School of Medicine Board of Visitors and is active in fundraising activities for UAB that support research projects targeting more effective treatment for rheumatoid arthritis.

The Battles are part of UAB's Stem Cell Institute Board and are both active in their support of UAB's Department of Rheumatology. In their leisure time, the Battles enjoy life on their ranch in Georgia. Mary is an avid equestrian while Bill enjoys working on various projects around the ranch.

ALABAMA CRIMSON TIDE BASKETBALL

PLAYER LOCKERROOM

The Crimson Tide basketball program already boasts one of the finest competition venues in the nation and the team also has one of the finest basketball facilities in its possession. Housed behind a pair of elegant frosted glass doors emblazoned with the Tide's signature "G" lies a state-of-the-art space that will give the current players everything they need for success on the court and in the classroom, while also providing a crown jewel for the program in attracting the nation's top talent to.

Upon entering the facility in the southeast corner of Coleman Coliseum, players will have a large, open and well-lit area furnished with tables, chairs, study carrels and computer work stations to pursue their academic course work with the same intensity and focus exhibited on the court. Adjacent to this area is the team's player lounge that features a more laid-back environment, complete with over-sized leather chairs and couches, two large flat-screen televisions, a custom pool table and juice bar to help the team hydrate and nourish their bodies before and after practice.

The rest of the facility is all business with a circular film room featuring comfortable stadium seating angled around a large projection screen. The room is equipped with the finest suite of video analysis software and tools designed to give the Tide a competitive scouting advantage against every opponent on its schedule. Next to the team's film room is the heart of the facility, the Tide's locker room. With a similar circular design, the Tide's detailed lockers constructed out of richly polished wood surround an Alabama logo weaved into the room's carpet. Each player has his own deep locker with adequate space to accommodate all his personal and athletic needs. A shower and restroom facility featuring detailed tile and fixtures designed for a basketball players physique. There is an equally impressive locker room for coaches and staff members as well as a conference room to develop and evaluate practice and game plans.

Just steps outside the locker room is the team's dedicated equipment room that gives each player easy access to his practice equipment and jersey. The equipment room also keeps a fully stocked line of Nike shoes and performance apparel to ensure that each Tide player is outfitted in the finest equipment and athletic gear in the world.

As much as the player's comforts are taken care in the facility, the bumps and bruises that come along with playing in the Southeastern Conference are also addressed as a complete training room is also enclosed within the facility's confines. The training room houses all of the team's medical needs with taping tables, evaluation stations and the most modern physical rehabilitation equipment available as well as a full-size cold tub and whirlpool to keep each player's body capable of performing at an elite level.

These various additions address the equally varied needs of the student-athlete devoting equal space to the team's academic, athletic and medical demands in a facility that is sure to give the current roster and generations of future UA players tools to everyday success.

COLEMAN COLISEUM

Since 1968, Coleman Coliseum has served as the home court of the Crimson Tide basketball team and the venerable structure has seen more than 450 Alabama wins under its distinctive arched roof.

Originally known as Memorial Coliseum, it remains one of college basketball's finest facilities and was decades ahead of its time when originally constructed at a cost of $4.2 million. The structure occupies two acres of land, with the roof reaching 90 feet above the playing surface and almost 100,000 square feet of space in the main seating bowl. At its inception, the Coliseum's capacity of 15,032 was easily the biggest in the Southeastern Conference and the fifth largest in the nation.

In 1988, the arena was re-dedicated as Coleman Coliseum in honor of Jeff Coleman, a longtime Crimson Tide historian, business manager and alumni director, who served on the committee that oversaw the Coliseum's planning and construction.

Coleman Coliseum saw its greatest transformation prior to the 2005-06 season, when the entire facility was nearly gutted and updated in grand fashion. Behind a bold modernized facade, the interior lobbies and concourses were expanded and upgraded along with offices, locker rooms and support facilities. In the main seating area, 15,316 new seats, all theater style and many of them padded, welcomed raucous crowds along with a new club area along the east side of the court. The improvements didn't stop there, as the consistently evolving facility continues to receive upgrades each season to keep it at the forefront of the nation's basketball facilities. The most recent included a new state-of-the-art high-definition scoreboard hanging over center court and additional courtside seating to bring the facility's capacity to 15,383.

The Coliseum also features an auxiliary gym that houses two full-size courts at the team's disposal for practices and individual workouts. The facility also includes state-of-the-art video, training, weight and equipment rooms.

In addition to Alabama's 14 NBA first-round draft picks, the Coliseum has welcomed some of the finest players in college basketball history, ranging from Charles Barkley and Pete Maravich to Shaquille O'Neal.

INTRODUCTION

THE SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE

Throughout the history of men's college basketball, the Southeastern Conference has captured 11 NCAA Championships and four NIT titles, making the SEC one of the nation's top basketball conferences.

During the 2006-07 academic year the Southeastern Conference became the first conference to win the Division I National Championship in Football (Florida), Men's Basketball (Florida) and Women's Basketball (Tennessee) in the same school year.

Only the SEC and the Big East have ever won both the men's and women's basketball titles in one season. The SEC won both three times in 1996, 1998 and 2007. The Big East has won both twice in 2003 and 2004.

The SEC swept both the NIT and NCAA Tournaments in 2006 when Florida won its first NCAA championship and South Carolina earned its second straight NIT title. Only four conferences have won both the NIT and NCAA title including the Big East (2003), ACC (1992) and Big Ten (1979).

THE NATION'S BEST COACHES

- Twelve of the 14 SEC coaches have led their teams to the NCAA Tournament. One not included in that list is entering his first season coaching collegiately and was previously named the NBA Coach of the Year while directing his team to the NBA Finals. The other coach has led teams to three postseason appearances in four years as a head coach.
- Eight SEC coaches have taken their teams to the Sweet Sixteen; seven have advanced to the Elite Eight and five have gone on to the Final Four (includes Division I).
- Five SEC coaches have been head coaches in the Final Four (includes DI) with three winning national championships.
- SEC coaches have combined to win nearly 4,600 games (4,585-2427). As a group, they have posted a winning percentage of better than 65 percent.
- Two active SEC coaches are the all-time winningest coach at their institution: UM's Andy Kennedy and VU's Kevin Stallings.
- Thirteen of the 14 SEC coaches have earned conference coach of the year honors and five have been named national coach of the year.

THE NATION'S BEST PLAYERS

- Ten SEC players were picked at the 2015 NBA Draft, including six first rounders.
- Kentucky's Karl Anthony Towns was drafted No. 1 overall in the 2015 NBA Draft. He is the fourth SEC player to be picked first overall in the draft and the third in the last six years.

- Each of the six 2015 first team All-SEC players available for the NBA Draft were selected in the first 40 picks.
- The SEC's 13 NBA Draft early entrants were the most of any conference. That total was more than the PAC-12 (5), Big Ten (4) & Big 12 (3) combined.
- Over the last eight NBA Drafts, 58 SEC players have heard their names called. Twenty-eight of those were selected in the first round and three were the No. 1 overall pick.
- Six players ranked in the top 20 of ESPN.com's Class of 2015 rankings signed with four different SEC schools, including the top two players in the class.
- Six players who earned All-SEC honors in 2015 return for 2016, including first team All-SEC selections Stefan Moody, UM, Daniel House (AM) and Damian Jones (VU).
- Fourteen of the top 25 scorers from 2015 are slated to return, as well as 10 of the top 20 rebounders and six of the top 10 play-makers.

POSTSEASON SUCCESS

- 2015 is the fourth time in the last five years that the SEC has had at least one team in the Final Four. Each of those four years, Kentucky has been one of the SEC's participants. It is the 12th time in the last 23 years the SEC has had at least one team in the Final Four.
- The SEC was 6-5 in NCAA Tournament games in 2015. It is the sixth consecutive season the SEC has posted a winning record in the NCAA Tournament. It is the 54th time the league has been 500 or better in NCAA Tournament games.
- The SEC has won three of the last 10 NCAA titles (2006 Florida, 2007 Florida, 2012 Kentucky). No other conference has won more titles during that stretch.
- The SEC has had at least one team advance to the Sweet Sixteen 25 of the last 26 years. Thirteen of the SEC's 14 members have advanced to the Sweet Sixteen since 1996.
- SEC teams are 13-2 (.867 percent) in postseason opening games over the last two years (7-0 in 2014, 6-2 in 2015).

- Every team in the SEC has made at least one NCAA Tournament appearance in the last 11 editions of the NCAA Tournament.

SCHEDULE STRENGTH

- A total of 14 SEC teams played regular season schedules that ranked in the Top 125 of ESPN's RPI.
- Entering the NCAA Tournament, eight SEC teams ranked in the top 25 percent of Division I teams according to the NCAA's RPI.
- Entering the NCAA Tournament, five SEC teams ranked in the top 56 of the NCAA RPI, and 11 in the top 105.
- The SEC played the best non-conference schedules among the five power conferences in 2015 according to ESPN's RPI. The average SEC strength of non-conference schedule was 118.7 nationally, topping those of the Big Ten (139.9), ACC (140.6), Big 12 (152.1), and Pac-12 (165.9).

ACADEMIC

- A total of 86 men's basketball students were named to the SEC Academic Honor Roster in 2015 for having a grade point average of 3.00 or above for either the preceding academic year or a cumulative grade point average of 3.00 or above.
- Alabama's Levi Randolph was named second team Academic All-American.
- Forty-two SEC men's basketball students active in 2014-15 have received their degrees. Additionally, former NBA stars Jee Mayberry, Ronnie Brewer and Ronald Dupree were among players returning to complete their degrees.

THE SEC TOURNAMENT

MARCH 9-13
NASHVILLE, TENN.
BRIDGESTONE ARENA

The 2016 Southeastern Conference Men's Basketball Tournament remains in Bridgestone Arena in Nashville. It will be the sixth time that the arena has served as the host of the SEC Tournament, having also hosted in 2001, 2006, 2010, 2013 and 2015. Also the home of the NHL's Nashville Predators, Bridgestone Arena has the distinction of being one of the busiest venues in the United States over the past decade and a half, hosting more than 18 million guests during that time. Seating capacity is approximately 19,375 for basketball games.

The winner of the 13-game tournament receives the SEC's automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament. The tournament seeds are determined by the 18-game conference schedule during the regular season. Teams are seeded 1-14 based on their regular season conference finish.

The SEC has shown extraordinary balance in the tournament, evidenced by the fact that a different school won the first seven titles after the renewal. The event has helped set the stage for SEC teams in the NCAA Tournament, as 23 of the tournament champions since the tournament resumed in 1979 have advanced to at least the Sweet Sixteen. Three of the last 18 SEC Tournament champions have gone on to win the national championship. Since the renewal in 1979, the SEC Tournament Champion has failed to win at least one NCAA Tournament game only four times.

Kentucky leads the league with 28 SEC Tournament titles. Alabama is second with six, while Tennessee and Florida are tied for third with four. Mississippi State has three championship trophies while Georgia, Ole Miss and Vanderbilt have two. Arkansas, Auburn, LSU and former league member Georgia Tech have each won one SEC Tournament championship.

MEN'S BASKETBALL PREVIEW

By Christopher Walsh

Avery Johnson already had a good life

He could have continued working as an analyst for ESPN. He could have waited for another opportunity to coach in the National Basketball Association, where over seven seasons he compiled a 254-186 record with the Dallas Mavericks and New Jersey/Brooklyn Nets.

There were numerous other things the man known as the "Little General" could have done, only he chose to go in a new direction.

"When The University of Alabama calls, you take that call," became the mantra of the Crimson Tide men's basketball program when he was hired on April 6 and the overhauling began. Just about everything from the team offices to the locker room has been changed. So has some of the seating in Coleman Coliseum, in hopes of getting the students more involved.

"The University, the administration, trustees, fans, student body, they've all embraced my family and I, and this community, so it's been great," Johnson said. "Everybody needs a new challenge in their life sometime. I've already done the NBA level for 20-plus years as a player, coach and analyst. I had a chance to work with some kids on the AAU level and high school the last two years, and I was thinking in the back of my mind if the right college job became available."

"But mainly to help mentor and teach young people, and be a role model for them was very attractive for me. It just looked like the right fit and stage in my career."

At age 50, Johnson plans to do essentially what he's always done: exceed everyone's expectations, and in a big way.

As a high school senior in 1983, Johnson led New Orleans' St. Augustine High School to a 35-0 record and the Class 4A state championship, although he still looked like anything but a future NBA star. He bounced around from New Mexico Junior College to Cameron University and finally Southern University, but despite being the first men's Division I player ever to average double figures in points and assists in the same season (11.4 and 13.3, respectively), he went undrafted.

Thought to be too small at 5-foot 11, he first spent a spring with the Palm Beach Stingrays in the United States Basketball League (USBL) before the Seattle SuperSonics gave him a chance with a free-agent contract. Johnson spent the next 16 years in the league and won a championship with San Antonio in 1999, making the game-winning shot in the decisive Game 5 with 47 seconds remaining.

The point guard tallied 8,817 points, 5,846 assists, and 1,751 rebounds, and had his No. 6 retired by the Spurs. In 2006, he was named the NBA's Coach of the Year and guided the Dallas Mavericks to the NBA Finals.

Now he hopes to have similar success with the Crimson Tide.

"The biggest challenge is you have to get good players, and players that fit your system," he said. "You have to have players who can pass, dribble and shoot, players who can problem-solve for you and can play at a high level on the biggest stage."

Luring top talent to Tuscaloosa is one of the reasons why Johnson has ordered the physical makeover of everything basketball-related, but the Crimson Tide will also have a different style on the court. Specifically, Alabama will be looking to score whenever possible, and quickly.

"Our goal is try and score in five seconds," Johnson explained. "We know that's not going to happen very often, but that's the goal — something for our players to bear in mind, and mainly to make sure that we keep our tempo. If we have to take the ball out of bounds every time we're not going to score in five seconds, we'll be in defense more so our defense is going to have to be sound."

Although the NCAA has shortened the shot clock from 35 seconds to 30, Alabama is practicing with a 20-second clock. The idea is if it doesn't score within the first five seconds it goes to a secondary approach. If that doesn't work it kicks in a 10-second package as the last resort.

That may take a little getting used to for the some of the returning players, but the roster hardly resembles the one at the end of the 2014-15 season when Alabama finished 19-13 (8-10 SEC), and fell in the second round of the NIT.

The top three scorers have all moved on, with Levi Randolph (the program's first Academic All American) and Rodney Cooper having used up their eligibility and Ricky Tarrant moving on.

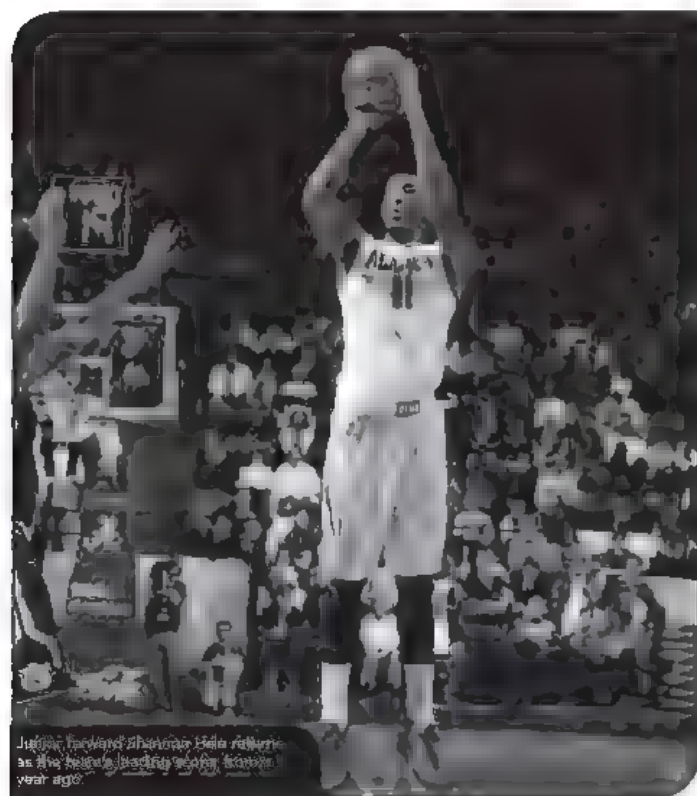

The guards were also the only players who averaged double digits in scoring.

At the point guard position, Alabama has three main players who are about as different as can be with sophomore Justin Coleman, senior Retin Obasohan and freshman Dazon Ingram.

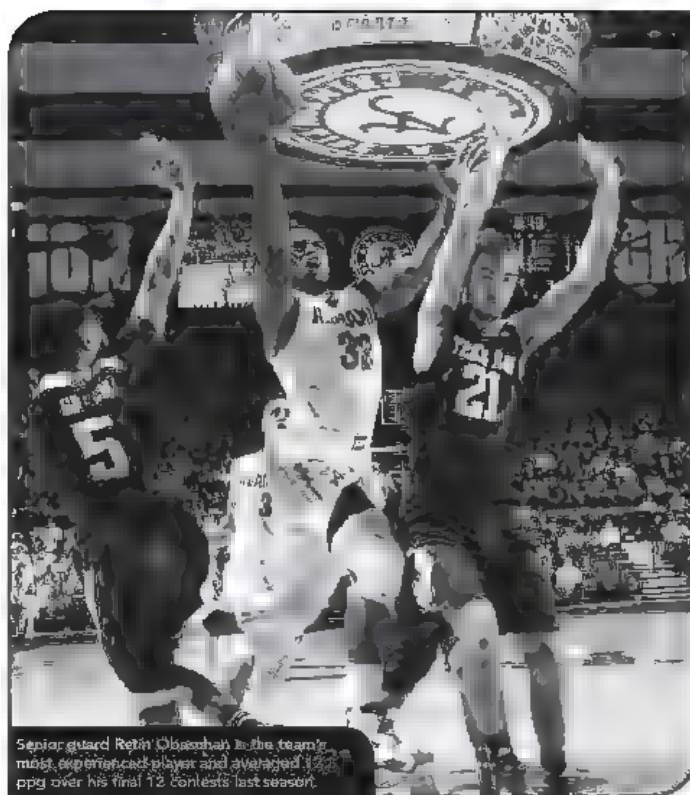

Coleman is the scorer of the trio and led the Crimson Tide in three-pointers last season while also notching 48 assists. Obasohan is among the team's top defenders and, as the only senior on the roster, has 92 games of experience. Ingram, who won the Mr. Basketball Award in the state of Alabama last year at Theodore High School, is listed as 6-5, 205 pounds and has a lot of potential.

All three can play other positions, especially Ingram and Obasohan. Freshman Brandon Austin will be looking to make an immediate impact at shooting guard.

"Brandon is just an unbelievable athlete, he was a football player in high school," Johnson said. "He could probably be a long jumper and probably run the 200. I'm not saying Usain Bolt, but he can flat out run, jump and shoot."

Junior forward Shannon Hale returns as the new leading scorer from a year ago.

Senior guard Retin Obasohan is the team's most experienced player and averaged 13.2 ppg over his final 12 contests last season.

Guard Arthur Edwards, a fifth year transfer from New Mexico who averaged 3.9 points and 2.0 rebounds in 12.0 minutes per game, will challenge sophomore Riley Norris, who played in all 34 games last season and started eight.

Health is a concern at power forward. Among returning players junior Shannon Hale was the leading scorer last season, averaging 8.2 points before suffering a season-ending foot injury against South Carolina on Feb. 24.

"Shannon Hale has been injured a lot, but he's on the mend, and we hope to have him healthy because he needs to have a big year for us," Johnson said. "He's versatile, can shoot the three, play inside and is a good pick-and-roll player."

Meanwhile, Michael Kessens, a junior who played in 32 games with 10 starts last season, is coming off an injury that sidelined him all summer.

Finally, Alabama's wide body Jimmie Taylor (6-10, 248) has been working on his footwork and staying out of foul trouble. A player to keep an eye out for is Dontá Hall. The 6-9 freshman arrived at roughly 190 pounds yet is already up to 224. Johnson referred to him as a "sponge" the way he's picked things up, "but just young."

Fans will also notice preferred walk-on Lawson Schaffer, who was named the Alabama 6A Player of the Year after a sensational senior season at Cullman High School, and sophomore Christian Clark, who earned his spot by trying out for the team last year. Both Avery Johnson Jr. and Nick King will have to sit a year after transferring from Texas A&M and Memphis, respectively.

"Some days I look up and wish they were eligible for us this year," Johnson said. "They're working hard and we're trying to separate them from systems that they had been in, and encourage them that now that they're at Alabama they need to do things our way."

"They're going to be good for us next year."

2016 SEC MEN'S BASKETBALL TOURNAMENT

March 9-13 • Bridgestone Arena • Nashville, Tenn.

SEC Tournament Tie-Breaker Procedures

Teams will be seeded No. 1 through No. 14 in the SEC Men's Basketball Tournament bracket based upon the final regular season Conference standings. Teams that finished No. 1 through No. 4 in the final regular season standings shall receive first- and second-round byes and teams that finish No. 5 through No. 10 will receive first-round byes in the SEC Men's Basketball Tournament.

1. Two-Team Tie. The following procedure will be used in the following order until the tie is broken:

- Win-loss results of head-to-head competition between the two teams
- Win-loss record of the two teams versus the No. 1 seed (and proceeding through the No. 14 seed, if necessary)
- Coin flip by the Commissioner

2. Three-Team Tie (or more). When three or more teams are tied, the following procedure will be used in the following order until the tie is broken. If two teams remain tied after a tiebreaker provision, the two-team tiebreaker formula will be used:

- Best winning percentage of games played among the tied teams (Example: Team A is 3-1, Team B is 2-2 and Team C is 1-3. Team A would be seeded highest, Team B second highest and Team C lowest of the three.)
- Best winning percentage of head-to-head games versus the No. 1 seed (and proceeding through the No. 14 seed, if necessary)
- If two teams remain, coin flip by the Commissioner
- If three or more teams remain, draw by the Commissioner

For the purpose of seeding, if an institution is precluded from participating in the tournament, such institution will automatically be seeded last. The No. 11 seed will then receive a bye. However, for the purpose of breaking ties, that team will remain where it finished in the regular season standings BEFORE being seeded last.

AVERY
JOHNSON

Head Coach

First Season

SOUTHERN, 1988

COACHES/STAFF

Avery Johnson was introduced as Alabama's 20th head men's basketball coach on April 8, 2015. Johnson, who led the San Antonio Spurs to the 1999 NBA title as a player and was named the 2006 NBA Coach of the Year, comes to the Capstone after a successful coaching career in the NBA.

Johnson brings a 254-186 (.577) career coaching record to the Crimson Tide after spending four seasons with the Dallas Mavericks and two-plus seasons with the Brooklyn Nets.

During his time in Dallas, Johnson led the Mavericks to the postseason in each of his three-plus seasons as head coach. He led the Mavericks to a record of 194-70 (.735) and set the NBA record for reaching the 50-win plateau (62 games) and the 150-win plateau (191 games) the fastest.

In 2005-06 Johnson led the Mavericks to their first ever appearance in the NBA Finals en route to earning NBA Coach of the Year honors.

Johnson was appointed head coach of the Mavericks on March 19, 2005, following the resignation of Don Nelson. An immediate success, Johnson finished the season with a 16-2 mark, earning Western Conference Coach of the Month honors for April.

In his first full season as head coach Johnson led the 2005-06 Mavericks to a 60-22 record and the team's first ever Western Conference Championship. He was named Western Conference Coach of the Month in November of 2005, becoming the first coach in league history to win the award in his first two full months of coaching. Johnson picked up the award for a third time in January, 2006.

As the coach with the best record in the conference, Johnson earned the honor of coaching the 2006 Western Conference All-Star Team.

The following season, he guided the team to an NBA best 67 wins in 2006-07 in his final season in Dallas. In 2007-08, Johnson led his club to 50-plus wins for the third straight year, finishing with a record of 51-31. Making the playoffs in four consecutive seasons, Johnson holds a career postseason record of 23-24 (.489).

Johnson began the 2004-05 season as an assistant coach with Dallas after retiring as a player on October 28, 2004.

In 16 NBA seasons as a player, he averaged 8.4 points, 5.5 assists, 1.7 rebounds and 25.3 minutes played in 1,054 career games with seven different teams. Known as "The Little General" for his on-court leadership and diminutive stature, Johnson helped guide the San Antonio Spurs to an NBA Championship in 1999.

On March 28, 2003 as a member of the Mavericks, Johnson became the 75th player in league history to play 1,000 career games. At 5-11, he joined Calvin Murphy as the only other player under 6-feet tall to reach that milestone. He is still the Spurs' all-time leader in assists (4,474) and ranks 28th in NBA history in the same category. In recognition for his contributions to the Spurs organization, Johnson's No. 6 jersey was retired in December, 2007.

The New Orleans native played his final two collegiate seasons at Southern University, leading the NCAA in assists in each of his two years at Southern, and was named the Southwestern Athletic Conference Player of the Year and the MVP of the conference tournament as both a junior and senior.

He still owns several NCAA Division I records, including most assists in a single game (22 - shared with two other players), most 20 or more assist games (4), the highest single season assist average (13.3) and the highest career assist average (12.0). As a senior in 1988, he averaged 11.4 points per game, making him the first men's Division I player ever to average double figures in points and assists in the same season.

Despite his numerous amateur accolades, Johnson was not selected in the 1988 NBA Draft. He started his professional career playing with the Palm Beach Stingrays of the United

COACHES AND STAFF

Bob Simon
Associate Head Coach First Season
EASTERN MICHIGAN, 1997

Bob Simon was named the associate head coach on April 20, 2015. Simon, who was most recently the associate head coach at Providence, brings more than 20 years of collegiate coaching experience to the Tide.

"We are excited about the addition of coach Bob Simon," Johnson said. "I first met Bob when he attended one of my coaching chalk talks during my time as an NBA coach, and was immediately impressed with his basketball Q. Bob brings a tremendous coaching resume to our program, along with a vast amount of experience in the area of recruiting and talent assessment. He also shares the same vision we have of being the best program not only for the athlete but also for the student."

During his four seasons at Providence, Simon helped lead the Friars to reach back-to-back NCAA Tournaments in 2014 and 2015, a BIG EAST Championship in 2014 and the NIT Quarterfinals in 2013. Moreover, he has been instrumental in helping bring in two top-25 recruiting classes in the last three years.

After spending his first three seasons under Providence head coach Ed Cooley, Simon was promoted to the associate head coach position in August of 2014.

Prior to his time with Providence, Simon worked for five seasons as an associate head coach for Ed Cooley at Fairfield. Simon helped lead the Stags' resurgence as the team posted a 92-69 record (.571) overall and a 58-32 mark (.578) in MAAC action during his time at Fairfield. The 92 wins were the most ever at Fairfield over a five-year span.

In 2009-10, Fairfield reached the postseason after recording a 23-11 record. It was the Stags' first postseason appearance since 2003.

The following season, Fairfield reached new heights as the squad captured the MAAC regular-season title and advanced to the second round of the NIT. In advancing to the second round of the NIT, Fairfield won at Colorado State to earn the team's first NIT victory in almost 40 years. The 2011 Fairfield Stags registered a school-record 25 wins and finished second in the nation for scoring defense. With its 25-8 record in 2011, the team posted consecutive seasons with 20 or more victories for the first time in the history of the program.

Before arriving at Fairfield, Simon spent six years at the University of Toledo, including three years as the associate head coach. The Rockets posted three 20-win seasons and captured two National Invitation Tournament berths (2001, 2004) during his time at Toledo. While there, his duties included scouting, coordinating an academic program, overseeing summer camps and on-floor coaching. He was also the program's lead recruiter during his tenure.

Simon began his collegiate coaching career at Wayne State University, spending nearly a decade with the Warriors. He coached the men's team for eight seasons—five seasons as an associate head coach and three seasons as an assistant coach. During this time, Wayne State posted eight straight winning seasons, and reached the Division II Final Four in 1993.

The Warriors captured three conference titles and made four NCAA Tournament appearances, including three trips to the Sweet 16.

After eight seasons there, Simon accepted a new challenge when he became the head women's basketball coach at Wayne State. In his one season with the women's team, Simon turned the program around by posting 13 wins. The team earned a conference tournament berth for the second time in history.

Simon began his coaching career in the high school ranks where he gained 10 years of experience (1981-91). He coached at Thurston High School in Redford, Mich., for six years and he was the varsity head coach for four years at Anderson High School in Southgate, Mich.

Simon received his bachelor's degree in manufacturing technology from Eastern Michigan University in 1989, and his master's degree in sports administration from Wayne State in 1997.

Simon and his wife Donna have a daughter, Bobbie, and a son, Devin.

Former Crimson Tide standout Antoine Pettway begins his fifth season as an assistant coach, and his eighth year on the Alabama men's basketball staff. Pettway has developed a reputation as one of the top recruiters not only in the state of Alabama and in the Southeast region, but in the nation as well.

Pettway made his presence felt immediately on the recruiting trail, playing an integral part in bringing the nation's 21st-ranked recruiting class in 2014.

Pettway has played a key part in luring the top recruits in the state of Alabama to the Capstone. Due in large part to his efforts on the recruiting trail, Alabama has signed the No. 1-ranked player in the state in three consecutive years (Jimmie Taylor was ranked No. 1 in 2013, Justin Coleman was No. 1 in 2014 and Dazon Ingram was No. 1 in 2015).

In addition to signing the state's top-ranked recruits, Riley Norris was ranked No. 3 in the state as a high school senior in 2014, while 2015 signees Donta Hall (No. 2) and Brandon Austin (No. 4) were both rated among the elite players from the state of Alabama.

Prior to his role as an assistant coach with the Crimson Tide, Pettway spent three seasons as Alabama's director of operations (2010-13) after serving as an assistant coach at his alma mater for the previous two years (2008-10). The Alberta, Ala., native re-joined the Crimson Tide in the summer of 2008, after a two-year stint on the staff at Jacksonville State.

His duties include recruiting, on-court coaching working primarily with the guards, scouting and statistical breakdown, along with other duties assigned by the head coach.

A former Crimson Tide star player, Pettway has developed a reputation for building relationships and aids the Tide greatly in its on-campus recruiting efforts. He also works with the coaching staff to develop players off the court while assisting in the day-to-day management of the program.

Pettway began his Alabama career as a walk-on with an academic scholarship before earning an athletic scholarship for his sophomore season. He was an integral part of Alabama's NCAA quarterfinal run in 2004 starting every game at point guard. That marked the third consecutive season in which he led the Tide to the NCAA Tournament.

While attending graduate school in 2005-06, Pettway began his coaching career by serving as an office assistant in the Alabama basketball office before accepting the full-time position as an assistant coach at Jacksonville State.

Following his graduation from the Capstone with a degree in biology, Pettway played professionally for the Huntsville Flight of the NBA Developmental League and the Kentucky

Reach of the World Basketball Association. While with the Reach, he was named the league's rookie of the year in 2004.

Pettway is married to the former Kim Minor, also a University of Alabama graduate. The couple has one son, Kingston.

COACHES AND STAFF

Scott Pospichal, who has over 30 years of coaching experience at the AAU, junior college and high school levels, was named assistant coach of the men's basketball program Alabama on June 4, 2015.

"Scott is a legendary AAU coach and we are very excited for him to join our program," Johnson said. "During his time with the Texas Titans, he helped develop numerous players who went on to do great things at the college and professional levels. He is an excellent coach who specializes in the offensive part of the game and is a great communicator. There is no doubt in my mind that Scott will be a tremendous asset to our program."

Pospichal (pronounced POSS-pickle) comes to the Capstone after spending the previous 10 years building the Texas Titans into one of the AAU's elite basketball programs in the nation. During his time with the Titans, Pospichal coached over 25 players who signed Division I scholarships, including the likes of Julius Randle (Kentucky), Matthew Jones (Duke), Prince Ebeh (Texas), Damion Jones (Vanderbilt) and Avery Johnson Jr., among many others.

Pospichal led the Titans to seven AAU national championship games in his 10 years at the helm of the program, claiming four national titles and three runner-up finishes. Furthermore, his teams were a member of the NIKE Elite Youth Basketball League (EYBL) for four years and claimed the U-16 Nike National Peach Jam Championship in 2012, which is considered the top AAU event in the nation.

Pospichal's collegiate coaching experience came when he was the head coach at Palm Beach Community College in Lake Worth, Fla., for nine seasons (1987-95). While there, Pospichal became the winningest coach in program history with a record of 181-72 (.713). He led his teams to three conference titles and was named the conference coach of the year three separate times. During his nine years at Palm Beach CC, Pospichal placed 48 of 50 student athletes in four-year schools.

Prior to his time at Palm Beach, Pospichal was an assistant coach at JNC Charlotte from 1983-85 under head coach Dr. Hal Wissel.

From 1994-2004, Pospichal stepped outside the coaching box and into the world of business where he worked for Excel Communications, which is a multi-billion dollar company. He served on many different levels at the corporation including presidential director, ambassador, executive senior director and many others on his way to becoming the company's 13th best all-time income earner.

Pospichal played his collegiate basketball at Florida Southern College from 1981-83, where he helped the Mocs to the 1981 NCAA Division II national championship title, while also reaching the national championship game in 1982. Additionally, FSC claimed two NCAA South Region titles (1981, 1982), two conference tournament championships (1981, 1983) and three regular season conference titles (1981, 1982, 1983). He still ranks second in program history in career free throw percentage (.868), while his 207 assists during the 1983 campaign is the second-highest single-season assist total in program history.

Pospichal has been married to his wife, Janet, for 31 years and the couple has four children: son, Jason (24), and triplet daughters, Brooke, Grace and Molly (18). Jason recently graduated from Warner University in Lake Wales, Fla., with a bachelor's degree in sports management, while all three daughters are college freshmen. Brooke signed a scholarship and will be a diver at the University of Texas (Austin). Grace signed a basketball scholarship at Oklahoma Wesleyan University in Bartlesville, Okla., while Molly will be a freshman attending the University of North Texas.

Kobie Baker returns to the Alabama men's basketball program as he begins his first season as the special assistant to the head coach/senior director of basketball operations. Baker returns to Tuscaloosa, where he spent three years in the program as the director of basketball operations (2006-07), assistant basketball coach (2007-08) and athletics development officer (2008-09).

"We are very excited to welcome Kobie Baker back to the Crimson Tide men's basketball program," Johnson said. "Kobie has certain areas of expertise that will only strengthen our coaches, players and staff. He will be a great addition for us and we look forward to him helping us move forward and reach new heights."

Baker was most recently at the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) headquarters for three years (2012-15) serving as associate director of amateurism certification and assistant director of enforcement basketball development. Johnson said this was a strategic hire which he feels will only help the men's basketball program continue to operate at a high and compliant level.

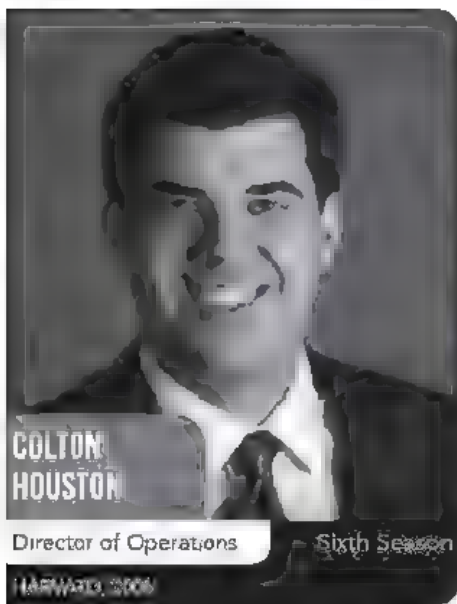

"Kobie will be a big addition in terms of his familiarity in certain specialty areas," Johnson said. "He will be able to use his expertise and help our coaching staff maintain the Alabama men's basketball program's high standard when it comes to integrity and compliance."

In addition to his two years spent on the Alabama coaching staff, Baker has had assistant coaching jobs at Troy (2001-02), Nicholls State (2002-03) and North Texas (2003-05). The Jackson, Miss., native also spent the 2009-10 year as the head boys basketball coach and athletics director at Livingston High School in Livingston, Ala.

"I am extremely excited about the opportunity to return to The University of Alabama and work for Coach Avery Johnson," Baker said. "I have been impressed with his leadership and commitment to a championship program. My time at the NCAA has provided me the opportunity to grow and learn under exceptional regulatory leadership and my time spent as an assistant basketball coach has given me the necessary campus experience. There is nothing greater than serving the student athlete and I am looking forward to being a positive contributor to Coach Johnson's program and The University of Alabama family."

Baker is a 1993 graduate of Tuscaloosa's Central High School and a 1998 graduate of Talladega College, helping lead Talladega College to the 1995 Southern States Conference Championship. He started his coaching career at Southeastern Louisiana upon graduation in 1998 and was a graduate assistant at The University of Alabama from 1999-2001.

Colton Houston begins his first year as director of basketball operations and enters his sixth season with the Alabama men's basketball program. In addition to his new position, Houston has also spent time as the operations coordinator (2013-15), athletics intern (2011-13) and office assistant (2010-11).

In his new position, Houston serves as the director of the Avery Johnson Basketball Camp and also is responsible for coordinating team travel and spearheading the program's analytics efforts. In addition, Houston plays a large part in scheduling, on-campus recruiting, and has a hand in nearly every aspect of the men's basketball program.

Prior to his most recent promotion, Houston spent two years as the operations coordinator in which his responsibilities included helping with the statistical analysis of games and practices, assisting with team travel, oversight of staff and student athlete tickets for home and away games, and helping with the program's compliance, along with other day-to-day duties as assigned by the coaching staff.

A native of Birmingham, Ala., Houston graduated from Harvard in 2004 with a bachelor's degree in government. Following his graduation, he was a teacher and assistant boys basketball coach at Christ School (Arden, N.C.), helping guide them to the 3A state title in 2005.

Houston went on to receive a master's degree in divinity from the Beeson Divinity School at Samford University in 2010. He married the former Megan McCall in 2008 and the couple has one daughter, Caroline, who was born on July 7, 2015.

COACHES AND STAFF

Head strength and conditioning coach Lou DeNeen enters his third season at Alabama. DeNeen came to the Capstone with nearly 30 years of experience in the profession.

Prior to coming to Alabama, DeNeen spent six years at UAB (2007-13), following successful stints at Florida International (1991-94, 1997-2007) and California (1994-97).

Last season, DeNeen was a part of the Alabama NIT team that reached the second round, marking the 17th time he's been the basketball strength coach of a team that reached postseason play (NCAA and NIT).

With DeNeen's help, UAB made four straight postseason appearances (one NCAA, three NIT) from 2008-11. The 2010-11 season marked the 16th time in DeNeen's career that he had been the strength coach for a men's or women's basketball team that reached postseason play.

DeNeen earlier spent a total of 13 years in two stints as head strength and conditioning coach for FIU's 17 varsity sports. He originally was with the Golden Panthers from 1991-94 and then from 1997-2007.

In between his years at FIU, DeNeen was the top assistant strength coach at California, with direct responsibility for the football, men's basketball and softball programs. While working with the Golden Bears football team, DeNeen was the strength coach for numerous NFL draft picks, including five first-round selections and three second-round picks.

As head strength coach for Cal's nationally-ranked men's basketball team, DeNeen worked with seven players who went on to play in the NBA, including 1996 PAC-10 Player of the Year and league scoring champion Shareef Abdur-Rahim and 1997 PAC-10 Player of the Year/scoring champ Ed Gray.

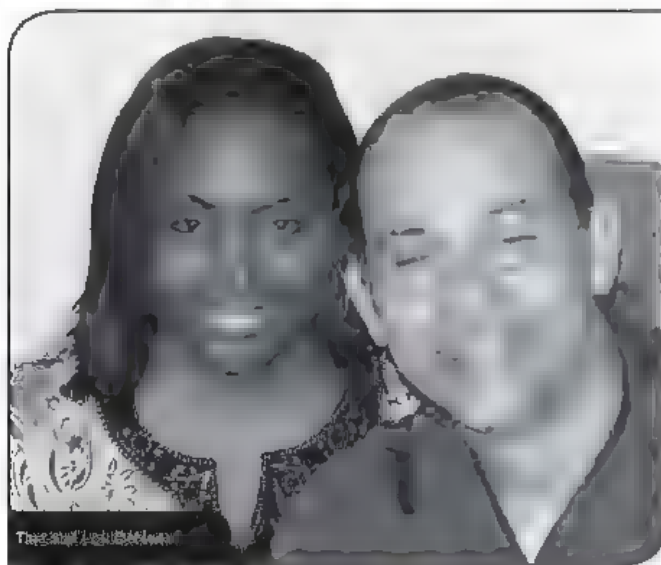

During his collegiate coaching career, DeNeen has trained 14 players who have either played or are currently playing in the NBA.

In addition to his collegiate experience, DeNeen has worked with and trained many professional athletes. His clientele includes:

Major League Baseball players Alex Rodriguez, Raul Ibanez, Mike Lowell, Jose Cruz, Jr., and Alex Gonzalez; NBA players Abdur-Rahim, Mark Studdard, Raja Bell, Jamal Mashburn, Carlos Arroyo, R.J. Brown and Joe Smith, and the NFL's Tony Gonzalez, among many others.

DeNeen received his bachelor's of science degree in microbiology from the University of South Florida in 1991 and earned a master's in health education from FIU in 1994. He has been a certified strength and conditioning specialist (C.S.C.S.) for 23 years.

DeNeen is married to the former Tina Collins and the couple resides in Birmingham.

Alex Fain is in his second season with the Alabama men's basketball program in 2015-16 serving in the role as video coordinator.

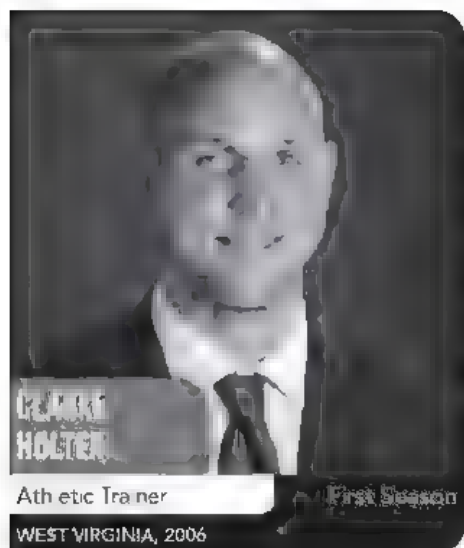

Fain returned to his alma mater in 2014 after spending part of the 2013-14 season as the video coordinator for Indiana University.

As the team's video coordinator, Fain is responsible for all aspects of video operations, including film exchange, video breakdown of games and practices to create individual player edits, and assisting the coaching staff with opponent and self-scouting, among other duties.

Prior to his time in Bloomington, Fain was a manager for the Alabama basketball team for four years. Included in his duties as manager was setting up and breaking down equipment for each practice, assisting with one-on-one drills with the players and helping at the Alabama basketball camps, among other things.

Fain earned his bachelor's degree in human performance and exercise science from Alabama in 2013. He is married to the former Turner Pyle and the couple resides in Tuscaloosa.

Clark Holter is in his first season as the athletic trainer for the men's basketball team. Holter comes to Alabama after spending six years at Ole Miss, where he served as the men's basketball athletic trainer. During his time in Oxford, Miss., Holter was a key cog in helping the Rebels to the 2013 Southeastern Conference Tournament title, as well as a pair of NCAA Tournament appearances (2013 and 2015).

Prior to his arrival at Ole Miss, he served as an intern athletic trainer for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers from May, 2008-May, 2009.

Holter graduated from West Virginia University in 2006 with a degree in athletic training. During his time at WVU, he worked with the Mountaineer's men's basketball, baseball, rowing, football and women's soccer teams. In addition, he spent some time at the Healthworks Rehab & Fitness Clinic.

In 2005, he received the John C. Spiker Athletic Training Scholarship through the WVU school of education. He also completed an internship with the Miami Dolphins working through preseason and all of training camps, for the 2005 season.

Following graduation from WVU, he attended James Madison University where he obtained a Master's of Science degree in Kinesiology in 2008. During his time with the Dukes, he worked with the baseball, men's and women's golf teams. In the summer of 2007, he completed an internship with the Tampa Bay Devil Rays at their complex in St. Petersburg, Fla.

Holter is a board-certified athletic trainer by the National Athletic Trainers' Association and has certifications in CPR, AED and serves as a CPR instructor. In addition, he has obtained his Performance Enhancement Specialist and Corrective Exercise Specialist certifications through the National Academy of Sports Medicine. The Culpeper, Va. native is married to the former Liz Robertson, who was a four-year letterwinner for the Ole Miss women's basketball team from 2007-10. The couple's first child is due in January, 2016.

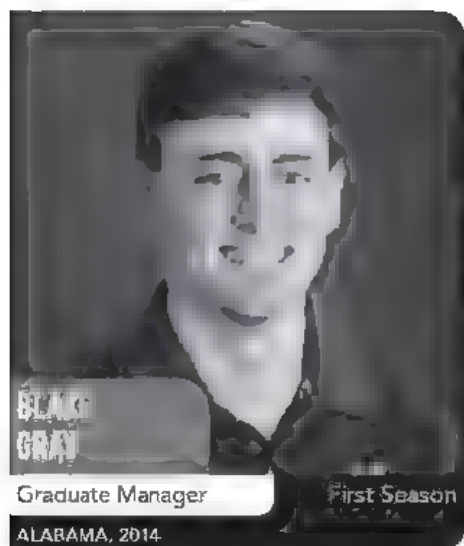

David Miller joined the Alabama basketball team in the summer of 2015 and begins his first season as the assistant video coordinator.

Prior to his arrival in Tuscaloosa, Miller spent a total of five seasons at the University of Arizona under head coach Sean Miller (2010-13 as a manager and 2013-15 as a graduate manager). While there, Miller was a part of an Arizona program that earned three Pac-12 championships and four NCAA Tournaments, including three elite eight appearances and one sweet 16 showing.

Miller's role with the Wildcats included aiding the coaching staff in individual and team workouts, in addition to various operational and video duties.

Miller played college basketball at El Camino Junior College before transferring to Arizona, where he earned a bachelor's degree in English in 2013.

The Manhattan Beach, Calif. native earned his graduate degree from Arizona in 2015 in education. He is the son of Dave Miller whose 20-year coaching career saw him work both on the college level and in the NBA. The elder Miller currently serves as an analyst during Los Angeles Lakers games broadcast on Time Warner SportsNet.

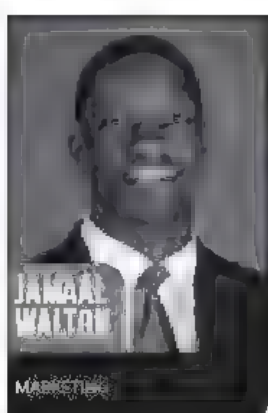

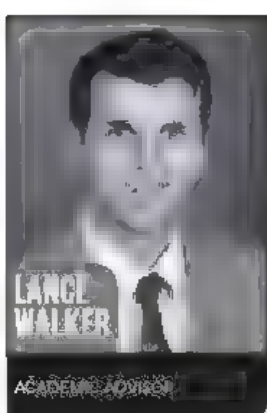

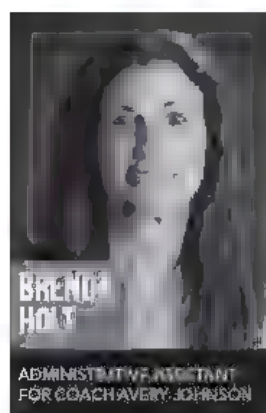

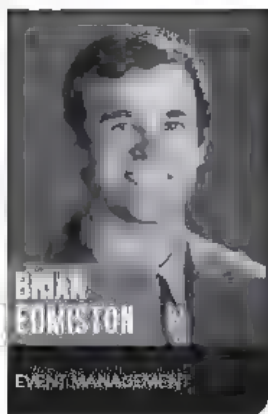

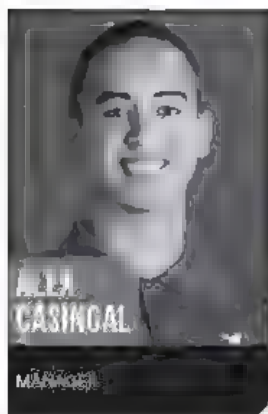

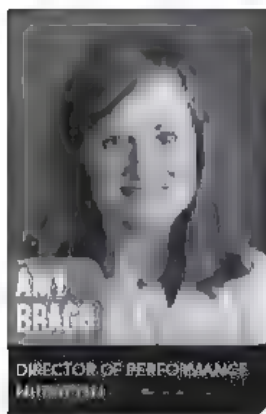

Blake Gray is in his first season as the graduate manager for the men's basketball team. As graduate manager, Gray will play a part in film breakdown, opponent scouting, overseeing managers, recruiting manouts and other duties as assigned by the coaching staff.

Gray is no stranger to the Crimson Tide program as he spent four years as a student manager, including the last two seasons as one of the head managers. In that role, Gray helped coordinate schedules for practice times and individual workouts. He was also in charge of scheduling, practice set up and anything else assigned by the coaching staff.

During the summer of 2013, Gray spent time as an intern at Nike Headquarters where he worked primarily with the Jordan Brand Global.

The Huntsville, Ala., native earned both his undergraduate and master's degrees from Alabama, receiving his bachelor's in accounting in 2014 and his master's in sports management in 2015. Gray is currently pursuing a second master's degree in marketing analytics, with an expected graduation date of May, 2017.

Rodney Cooper joined Lev Randolph as the first teammates to reach 1,000 career points in the same season since Alvin Gentry and Dennis Hensley accomplished the feat during the 2007-08 season.

2014-15 SEASON NOTES

TEAM

• Alabama made its 13th NIT appearance and 32nd postseason showing when it earned an at-large berth to the 2015 National Invitation Tournament. The Tide went 1-7 and now has a 24-16 (.600) all-time record in postseason NIT play.

• Alabama opened the 2015 NIT in impressive fashion with a 79-58 victory over No. 3 seed Illinois on March 17. Bama went on a 20-0 run during the opening 20 minutes and led by as many as 30 points in the second half on its way to the victory. The Tide eventually fell in the second round at No. 2 seed Miami (Fla.), by a final score of 73-66.

• Alabama was one of eight SEC teams to earn a berth in either the NCAA Tournament or NIT in 2015. Joining the Crimson Tide in the NIT was Texas A&M and Vanderbilt, while Arkansas, Georgia, Kentucky, LSU and Ole Miss each earned a spot in the NCAA Tournament.

• Injuries were a major factor for the Crimson Tide throughout the season. Alabama played the final six-plus games of the year without two of its top four scorers in Ricky Tarrant (13.1 ppg - ruptured plantar fascia in left foot) and Shannon Hale (8.2 ppg - broken left foot). Together, the duo contributed 23.3 points per game to the Alabama offense. In fact, Alabama players missed a total of 26.5 games due to injuries.

• Five of the Tide's 14 losses were decided by a single possession by a total of eight points. The defeats included 53-52 at then-No. 11 Wichita State, 68-66 at South Carolina, 93-91 in overtime at Arkansas, 52-50 to Florida and 66-65 in overtime to Georgia. For the season, the Tide was 3-5 on the year in games decided by a single possession.

• Alabama finished the year with an RPI of No. 57 in the nation according to KenPom.com. The Tide was one of nine teams in the Southeastern Conference who finished the season with a top 65 RPI, according to the website.

• Alabama was arguably four points away from being an NCAA Tournament team. The Tide lost at No. 11 Wichita State by one point, 53-52, on Dec. 16 (LA was up 10 with four minutes left), at No. 19 Arkansas by two points in overtime, 93-91, on Jan. 22 and to Georgia in overtime, 66-65, on Jan. 21. All three teams made the 2015 NCAA Tournament.

INDIVIDUAL

• Senior guard Lev Randolph was named a second team Academic All-American. In achieving the feat, Randolph became the first player in men's basketball program history to earn the honor. Randolph, who earned his undergraduate degree in marketing in just three years, finished his master's degree in marketing last August. The senior captain led the Tide in points (15.4), assists (2.5), steals (1.5) and minutes (35.3) per game. He left Alabama with the most games played in a career (135) and his 120 starts are fifth-most all-time. He finished his career with 1,336 points, which ranks for 21st on the all-time list.

• Randolph was named the 2015 SEC Scholar Athlete of the Year, becoming the second Alabama player to earn the honor in program history (Justin Knox won the award in 2009). In addition to the Scholar Athlete of the Year, the Madison, Ala., native earned second team All-SEC honors - the first all-conference accolade of his stellar career.

• Senior guard Rodney Cooper finished his career at Alabama with 1,122 career points, which ranks 40th in school history. He also finished with 131 career games played, which places him fifth in the Alabama record books.

• Junior guard Retin Obasohan stepped up his game over the final 14 contests that Ricky Tarrant missed due to injury. Over the last 14 games, two of which he was sidelined due to a right hand infection, Obasohan averaged 12.2 points, 4.7 rebounds and 1.4 steals per game while shooting 46 percent from the field and 41 percent from beyond the arc. Over his previous 19 games prior to his 12-game stretch, Obasohan averaged just 2.4 ppg, while shooting 40 percent from the floor and 27 percent from deep.

• Jimmie Taylor proved to be an important piece for the Tide throughout the season. In fact, when Taylor was hampered with foul trouble, Alabama typically struggled. In the 10 games in which Taylor picked up four or more fouls, the Tide went 4-6. When he had less than four fouls in a game, UA improved to 15-9.

2014-15 SEASON NOTES

ALABAMA COMPLETES 102ND SEASON OF BASKETBALL

- Alabama completed its 102nd season of basketball in 2014-15 and now owns an all-time record of 1,600-984-1 (.619), which includes a 757-578 (.567) record in SEC play.
- Alabama ranks second in the SEC in league victories and all-time winning percentage.
- UA has made 32 NCAA (19) or NIT (13) appearances and has won seven SEC regular-season titles and six SEC Tournament championships.

RANDOLPH IS PROGRAM'S FIRST ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICAN

- For the first time in program history, Alabama men's basketball has an Academic All-American. Senior guard Levi Randolph was selected to the 2014-15 Capital One Academic All-America Second Team.
- For Randolph, who was the only player from the SEC to earn the honor in the sport of men's basketball, it was a goal he worked toward his entire collegiate career since the moment he walked on campus.
- Earlier in the year, Randolph was selected to the Capital One Academic All-District 4 First Team for a third consecutive year—the first Crimson Tide men's basketball player in program history to achieve the feat.

RANDOLPH NAMED SEC SCHOLAR ATHLETE OF THE YEAR, 2ND TEAM ALL-SEC

- Levi Randolph was named the 2015 SEC Scholar Athlete of the Year. In addition, the Madison, Ala., native earned his first career all-conference accolade, as he was tabbed as a second team All-SEC honoree.
- Randolph became the second men's basketball player in program history to earn the league's Scholar Athlete of the Year award, joining former standout Justin Knox who claimed the recognition in 2009.

FILLING THE VOID

- After former player Ricky Tarrant was sidelined midway through the season due to an injury, Alabama needed someone to step up and fill that void. In the final 14 games which Tarrant missed, junior guard Retin Obasohan was that player.
- Over the 14 games Tarrant was sidelined, Obasohan's numbers improved significantly. The junior guard, who missed two of the Tide's last 14 games due to a hand injury, averaged 12.2 ppg, which ranked second on the team during the span. In addition, Obasohan's shooting percentages, as well as rebounds and minutes per game, saw a significant jump.
- Finally, Obasohan had just one double-figure game in his first 20 contests (missed one game due to injury), compared to 12 double-figure scoring contests over the final 13 games he has played (missed two with an injury).
- Below is a breakdown of Obasohan's numbers before and after Tarrant's injury.

Obasohan In...	MPG	PPG	RPG	FG%	3FG%
19 gms before Tarrant injury	12.1	2.4	1.7	.400	.273
12 gms after Tarrant injury	31.3	12.2	4.7	.461	.412

TIDE'S TRENDS

- There were a few noticeable trends when it came to the 2014-15 Alabama men's basketball team.
- One of the biggest trends to keep an eye during games was the field goal percentages. The Tide owned a record of 14-1 when holding the opposition to 40 percent or less shooting from the field. The only two losses came when Alabama fell to Georgia in overtime (2/21) after missing a shot at the buzzer to win the contest and against Miami (3/21) in the NIT.
- Below is a breakdown of a few other key factors during games Alabama was:
- 14-1 when holding the opposition to 40% or less field goal percentage
- 14-5 when leading at the half
- 4-9 when trailing at half
- 15-3 when committing the same or fewer turnovers than the opposition
- 12-6 when rebounds are tied or UA outrebounds the opposition
- 7-9 when getting outrebounded in a game
- 16-5 when shooting the ball better than the opposition
- 16-5 when attempting more free throws than the opposition
- 3-10 when attempting fewer free throws than the opposition
- 13-2 when holding opponents to 60 points or less in a game
- 15-6 when holding opponents to 70 points or less
- 16-9 in games decided by more than three points
- 3-5 in one-possession games

FREE THROW ADVANTAGE

- Alabama finished the season ranked fifth in the SEC and 87th in the nation in free throw shooting percentage. As a team, the Tide downed 539 of 752 (.717) free throws, which averaged out to nearly 16 points a game from line.
- Alabama was able to get to the foul line an average of 22.1 times a game. The Tide boasted more free throw attempts than the opposition on 21 occasions this year, resulting in 16 wins when that happened.
- Alabama's top three players in terms of free throw percentage (Levi Randolph, 146 of 174; Ricky Tarrant, 81 of 101; Rodney Cooper, 64 of 79) were a combined 82.1 percent (291 of 354) from the free throw stripe on the season.

TIDE REACHES 1,600 WINS

- As a program, Alabama became the 34th program in Division I to reach the 1,600 win plateau with a 79-58 win vs. Illinois on March 17 in the opening round of the 2015 NIT.
- The Tide owns an overall record of 1,600-984 (.619). Alabama joined Missouri State, Georgetown, Ohio State, Arkansas and Michigan State as programs who have achieved the feat in 2014-15.

Stingy defense down the stretch helped Alabama close out Appalachian State, 90-69, inside Coleman Coliseum.

Alabama had three players score in double-digits on the evening, with sophomores Michael Kessner leading the charge thanks to his first double-double during his time in Tuscaloosa, recording Alabama career-highs of 17 points and 10 rebounds. Sen or Lev Randolph was second in scoring for the Tide with 14 points. Randolph also contributed a career-high tying five assists for the evening. Junior guard Ricky Tarrant rounded out the double-digit scoring for Alabama, adding 11 points.

Sophomore Jimmie Taylor finished the night with a career-high seven blocked shots, which are the most swats in a game since Moussa Gueye had five blocks vs. Kentucky on Jan. 22, 2013. Taylor's biggest block of the night came with 41 seconds to play to keep the Alabama lead.

ALABAMA 66

Dec. 21, 2014 • Tuscaloosa, Ala.
Coleman Coliseum • 13,472

Senior guard Levi Randolph scored the 1,000th point of his Alabama basketball career early in a down-to-the-wire game against the visiting UCLA Bruins, but it was his five free throws with under a minute to go that sealed the 56-50 win for the Crimson Tide.

After calmly knocking down two free throws with 33 seconds left in the game to put the Tide up by three, Randolph added three insurance points in the last 15 seconds to finish the game with 15 points. Randolph posted the 1,000th point of his Crimson Tide career on a layup with 14.15 left in the first half. He finished the game as the 47th member of Alabama's 1,000-point club with 1,010 career points.

Down by 12 at the half, the Bruins clawed their way back into the game with a 10-0 run to start the second period. From that point, UCLA went on to tie the game at 48 points apiece with 2:15 remaining and again at 50-50 with 1:06 left on the clock, but could not retake the lead they relinquished at the 17:41 mark in the first half.

Alabama played tough defense to close out the contest and the win, forcing an errant three-pointer and a turnover on two of the Bruins' final three possessions.

Alabama came up just short, falling 68-66 to the South Carolina Gamecocks inside Colonial Life Arena. With the loss, Alabama's six-game winning streak came to an end.

The Tide remained in the game thanks to a solid defensive effort throughout the night. Alabama also received a strong offensive performance from junior guard Ricky Tarrant, who contributed 15 points on the evening before fouling out with four-plus minutes to play. Senior Levi Randolph added 13 points.

Tarrant remained hot for the Tide, shrinking USC's lead to just four at the 5:24 mark when the junior guard sank a three-pointer thanks to an assist from senior Levi Randolph to set the score at 62-58. The lead continued to dwindle with the Crimson Tide cutting it to three at 67-64 with just under 1:30 to play. Both teams battled, with two made free throws by sophomore Shannon Hale with 45 seconds left to cut the score to 68-66 game. The Tide held on defense but Randolph's potential game-winning three-pointer at the buzzer was off the mark.

2014-15 REVIEW

GAME 17

KENTUCKY 70
ALABAMA 48

Jan. 17, 2015 • Tuscaloosa, Ala.
Coleman Coliseum • 15,383

The Alabama's men's basketball team lost to No. 1 Kentucky, 70-48. The loss ended the Tide's home winning streak at 14 games, dating back to last year.

The Tide began the game on a high note, as it immediately forced a turnover for a Randolph breakaway layup for an early 2-0 lead. However, Kentucky quickly responded and went on a 10-0 run with 8:59 left in the half to take a double-digit lead. The Tide could not cut the deficit and the top-ranked Wildcats led by 18 points, 35-17, at halftime.

Kentucky took advantage of the Tide's lack of size inside and went on an 18-4 run. Alabama lost the battle of the boards, 30-21, and committed 15 turnovers, compared to 10 for the Wildcats. Kentucky's depth proved to be a big difference as well, outscoring its counterparts 37-16 on the evening.

ALABAMA 91
ARKANSAS 93

Jan. 22, 2015 • Fayetteville, Ark.
Bud Walton Arena • 11,528

In a game that featured 15 ties and 14 lead changes, the Tide and Razorbacks battled back and forth all night.

The Hogs' offensive attack was then squandered, as the Tide came up with a huge defensive stop and brought the ball back down the court, resulting in a layup and a foul on the shot to allow Michael Qualls a three-point play that evened the score at 78-78 at the end of regulation.

UA struck first in overtime to take the 80-78 lead. The two teams remained close for the next four minutes. Following two made free throws by the Razorbacks to set them ahead 91-88, Alabama evened the score thanks to a Shannon Hale three-pointer with 8.8 seconds left. On the final play of the game an Arkansas tip-in sunk the Crimson Tide and sent the team home with a loss, 93-91.

Arkansas was led by a career-high 30 points from Michael Qualls, while Bobby Portis finished with 10 points and 13 rebounds, including the game-winning tip in.

Senior guard Rodney Cooper's put-back with six seconds remaining capped an Alabama rally and lifted the Tide to a dramatic 67-66 victory in front of a sold-out crowd inside Coleman Coliseum.

Junior Ricky Tarrant added nine points but was disqualified with 8:11 left and Alabama trailing 47-39, due to picking up a second technical. However, that only spurred the Tide as Alabama stole the momentum and went on a 16-4 run over the next 6:43 to regain the lead, 53-51, with 1:28 left.

Alabama led at halftime, 25-23, and led by five points, 30-25, early in the second half. However, the Tide went on a scoring drought midway through the second, which allowed Auburn (10-9, 2-4) to go on a 10-0 run and eventually build a nine-point lead, 44-35, with 9:58 left in the game.

Randolph led the Crimson Tide with 18 points and seven rebounds on the night. Sophomore forward Shannon Hale added nine, while Cooper put up eight. Jimmie Taylor led a tough Tide defense with six blocks, all coming in the first half.

Despite outscoring Florida 28-17 in the second half, Alabama fell just short, 62-60, to the Gators. It was the Tide's fourth two-point decision in its last five games, falling short in three of the five contests.

The Tide came out of the break strong, stopping Florida's first possession and proceeding to force four Gator turnovers in the first four minutes of the half, helping Alabama slowly chip away at the deficit.

With the score tied at 50-50 in the final minute, Alabama had a chance to take the lead, but Florida forced a turnover. The Gators then converted a dunk with 21 seconds remaining to take a two-point lead. After a timeout, senior guard Levi Randolph took the ball for Alabama and drove to the basket, but his shot was blocked and time ran out as Alabama fought to regain possession.

Cooper led the Tide in scoring with 14 for the night, to go along with five rebounds. Tarrant added 13, while Randolph finished with nine points and six rebounds in the losing effort.

The Alabama's Crimson Tide fell to the top-ranked Kentucky Wildcats 70-66.

The Crimson Tide kept the second half close, scoring 31 to the Wildcats' 33, but Kentucky shot a season-best 59 percent (24-of-41) that proved to be too much for UA to overcome.

Kentucky (21-0, 8-0) jumped out to a big lead to begin the game, thanks in large part to 10 first-half turnovers for the Crimson Tide. As a result, Kentucky held a 17-11 advantage in points off turnovers and took a 37-24 lead into the locker room.

The Tide battled tough in the second half, as Kentucky outscored Alabama by just two points, 33-31, over the final 20 minutes, but never could get the lead out to single digits.

The Alabama men's basketball team engaged in another well-fought SEC matchup, but outlasted the Missouri Tigers to grab a 62-49 victory inside Coleman Coliseum.

With top-scorer Lew Randolph at the helm, Alabama outscored Missouri 36-25 over the final 20 minutes to cap the victory. Randolph's game-best 20 points on the night, his third such effort of the season, moved him into 39th position on the program's all-time scoring list (1,139).

Despite rallying back to pull the score within two points, the Alabama men's basketball team was unable to hold off the Tigers, and dropped the SEC matchup by a final score of 71-60 inside the Pete Maravich Assembly Center in Baton Rouge, La.

The Tide was without their second-leading scorer, Ricky Tarrant, for a third straight game and Retin Obasohan who had put up double digit performances in the last two games while starting in Tarrant's place. Alabama would also lose their leading rebounder, Michael Kessene, to injury with 14:23 left in the game.

Alabama fell behind early in the first half to LSU and the Tigers took a 10-point lead to the locker room. The Tigers came out of the break shooting, and started with a 9-2 run that would give them a 17-point lead with 17 minutes to play.

LSU (17-6, 6-4) was led by Jordan Mickey's 24 points and 12 boards, while Jarrell Martin scored 16 points.

The Alabama Crimson Tide held off a late rally and secured a 66-61 victory over SEC rival Mississippi State inside Humphrey Coliseum in Starkville, Miss. The Tide has now won five consecutive games over the Bulldogs in the series for the first time since 1985-87.

Sophomore forward Shannon Hale continued his string of strong performances, as he finished with a team-leading 14 points. Senior guard Levi Randolph added 13 points and a team-high seven rebounds and three assists.

The Tide struggled to get things going in the second half against the Mississippi State zone defense, scoring just seven points in the opening 9:09 of the final 20 minutes. As a result, the Bulldogs would rally and eventually took a 34-32 lead with 10:51 left in the half.

Mississippi State closed out with a three, 54-51, with 4.8 seconds but Randolph sealed the victory with a free throw to result in the final score.

In his last regular-season home game, guard Levi Randolph poured in a game-high 32 points on Senior Night, but it wasn't enough as Alabama fell to Ole Miss, 82-74, in Coleman Coliseum.

Playing together in their final regular season game at Coleman Coliseum, seniors Levi Randolph, Rodney Cooper and Dakota Slaughter were all inserted into the starting lineup by head coach Anthony Grant. As he did all season, Randolph resiliently led his team and scored a game-high 32 points, just one shy of his career high. A four-year starter and Academic All-American, the senior captain also established a new school record by going 17-of-17 from the free throw line, bettering the previous mark of 14-for-14 set by Alvin Lee vs. Vanderbilt on February 27, 1988.

Fellow seniors Rodney Cooper and Dakota Slaughter also rose to the occasion, as Cooper dropped 14 points and Slaughter collected a season-high eight, his most since a career-high 10 in 2012.

The Alabama men's basketball team was defeated by the Florida Gators in second round of the 2015 SEC Tournament by a final score of 69-61 inside Bridgestone Arena in downtown Nashville. The Crimson Tide trailed by just four points at the half but the Gators outscored the Tide 36-32 after the break to lock down the victory.

The Tide showed signs of threatening around the five-minute mark, scoring four straight points to shrink the Gator lead to seven. With 3:12 remaining Rodney Cooper swiped the ball away from Florida's Kasey Hill and looked to have an old-fashioned three-point play but after he made the layup, he was whistled for a charge. His fifth and final foul. Following the momentum swing Florida scored five straight points to put the game out of reach.

Alabama had four of its five starters reach double figures, led by Levi Randolph and Jimmy Taylor who each turned in 15 points. Rodney Cooper finished with 13. Freshman Riley Norris added eight points and a team-leading seven rebounds in the losing effort. The starting five scored all of Alabama's points, while the UA reserves finished 0-of-4 in 40 combined minutes.

JAMES 'LINDY' HOOD

6-5 / Center / Covington, Ala.

1930

James 'Lindy' Hood became Alabama's first All-American and one of the first from the South in 1930, after leading Alabama to its only perfect season in school history at 20-0 with a 1930 Southern Conference championship. Hood originally came to Alabama as a football standout and was a member of the 1931 Rose Bowl team. While complete statistics are unavailable, there is little doubt the high level of Hood's play as he earned the honor at a time when only five players were selected to the All-America team. Hood was Alabama's lone All-American for 25 years.

JERRY HARPER

6-7 / Center / Louisville, Ky.

1955 - HELMS FOUNDATION FIRST TEAM

1956 - HELMS FOUNDATION FIRST TEAM/AAU FIRST TEAM

Center Jerry Harper became Alabama's first two-time All-American, earning the honor in 1955 and 1956. A member of the famed "Rocket 8" teams, he led Alabama to an undefeated SEC season in 1956 and a No. 5 ranking in the final Associated Press poll, Alabama's highest final ranking in school history. Harper remains the SEC's all-time leader in rebounds (1,688), rebounds per game and is sixth all time in scoring at Alabama.

Another member of head coach Johnny Dee's "Rocket 8" team, he led the Tide to its first postseason ranking at No. 12 in 1955 before improving to a program-best No. 5 during the 1956 season, when he helped the team compile a 21-3 record and win an SEC title.

SEC PLAYER OF THE YEAR

WENDELL HUDSON • 1973

Wendell Hudson became Alabama's first SEC Player of the Year in 1973 after leading the league in scoring with 20.7 points per game. Hudson led Alabama to a 22-8 record, its most wins in a season at that point, and a second-place finish in the league, its highest finish in 17 seasons, in addition to his scoring. Hudson pured down 12.1 rebounds per game. Thanks to his stellar play the Tide made its first postseason appearance in school history with a berth in the NIT and advanced all the way to the Final Four before falling to traditional basketball powerhouse North Carolina.

SEC PLAYER OF THE YEAR

REGGIE KING • 1978 • 1979

Alabama's all-time scoring leader also is its only two-time SEC player of the year, earning the award in 1978 and 1979 from the Associated Press and United Press International. Reggie King averaged more than 21 points per game in both seasons and converted on nearly 58 percent of his shots from the floor. In 1979, he scored a school-record 747 points (more than any other player in the SEC) and led the Tide to 22 wins and another NIT semifinal appearance. A year earlier King led the league and was fourth in the nation in rebounding with 13.3 per game. King finished his career with 2,168 points, the seventh-most in NCAA history. In 1999, he was honored as Alabama's first SEC Legend.

SEC PLAYER OF THE YEAR

DERRICK MCKEY • 1987

Derrick McKey was named the SEC Player of the Year in 1987 by the league's coaches, the Associated Press and the United Press International, after leading one of the best Alabama teams in school history. While he didn't lead the league in any statistical categories, McKey's play sparked the Tide to the 1987 SEC Tournament title and an appearance in the NCAA "Sweet 16." Over the course of the season, he averaged 18.6 points and 7.5 rebounds per game as the Tide finished the 1986-87 season ranked No. 9 in the nation. McKey also earned SEC all-tournament honors for the second consecutive season in 1987 and was tabbed the tournament MVP.

RECORDS & HISTORY

ALL-SEC SELECTIONS

From 1933-53, the All-Southeastern Conference team was based on play in the SEC Tournament. In 1949, the Associated Press began a separate All-SEC recognition. In 1957, the SEC coaches chose an all-star following the regular season, a trend that continues today. The UPI picked an All-SEC from the 1966 season through 1991.

SEC COACHES OF THE YEAR

C.M. NEWTON • 1975 • 1976

C.M. Newton remains the only coach in Alabama history to earn back-to-back SEC Coach of the Year honors, doing so in 1975 and 1976. In 1975, Alabama tied Kentucky for the SEC championship with a 15-3 record in league play. Newton's 1976 team was arguably one of the greatest in Alabama history, winning the SEC championship and becoming the first team other than Kentucky to capture three straight league titles. Alabama made its first NCAA "Sweet 16" appearance before losing to undefeated Indiana in a classic game decided in the final seconds.

WIMP SANDERSON • 1987 • 1989

Wimp Sanderson was twice named the SEC Coach of the Year, earning the recognition in 1987 and 1989. The '87 squad was one of the best teams in program history, as the Tide won both the SEC regular season and tournament championships. Alabama finished with a 26-4 overall record and a 16-2 mark in SEC play and a "Sweet 16" appearance. In 1989, Sanderson led the Tide to the SEC Tournament title and another NCAA Tournament showing. Alabama closed the year ranked No. 20 in the nation with a 23-8 overall record and a 12-6 mark in league play.

MARK GOTTFRIED • 2002

Mark Gottfried's SEC Coach of the Year award in 2002 gave Alabama a clean sweep of the major awards, as Mo Williams was named SEC Freshman of the Year and Erwin Dudley tabbed the league's Player of the Year. Gottfried led the Crimson Tide to a 27-8 overall record and a 12-4 mark in league play. Alabama earned a berth in the 2002 NCAA Tournament as it claimed the SEC regular season crown and the tournament championship. The Crimson Tide finished the season with a final ranking of No. 8 in the nation.

RECORDS & HISTORY

ALABAMA IN THE NBA

Alabama has a long and storied tradition of preparing players to compete at the highest level, with more than 20 former Crimson Tide student-athletes using their experience at the Capstone to build successful NBA careers. Alabama has seen its stars go on to win nine NBA Championships, six All-Star selections, six All-Defensive Team honors, three All-Rookie honors and more than $390 million in career earnings on the NBA hardwood. Altogether, Alabama players have gone on to suit up in more than 10,000 NBA games and scored more than 90,000 all-time points.

ALABAMA'S SEVEN-TIME NBA WORLD CHAMPION

Any discussion of Alabama's place in the NBA begins and ends with seven-time NBA world champion Robert Horry. Horry started at Alabama from 1989-92 before the Houston Rockets selected him with the 11th pick of the 1992 draft. Two years later, he helped lead Houston to the first of back-to-back titles before moving on to Los Angeles, where he helped the Lakers win three consecutive titles in 2000, 2001 and 2002. Three seasons later he was with the San Antonio Spurs when they won titles in 2005 and 2007. Only six players in NBA history have won more titles than Horry, and he is the first player since 1976 to win more than six titles. He also is just one of only two players in NBA history to play for three different franchises that won NBA titles. Horry finished his career as the NBA all-time leader in playoff games, appearing in 244 games, seven more than Kareem Abdul-Jabbar. Along the way, he set the NBA Finals record for steals in a game with seven against the Orlando Magic in the 1995 Finals. His 261 three-pointers in playoff action rank as the second-most in NBA playoff history while his 40 in the Finals are the NBA record.

NBA HONORS AND AWARDS

Alabama has developed a legacy of producing top-tier NBA talent, with four Tide players going on to play in a total of seven NBA All-Star Games. Latrell Sprewell leads the way, garnering All-Star selections in 1994, 1995, 1997 and 2001. His 1994 All-Star selection was the first by a former Crimson Tide player, but not the last, as he was joined in 2001 by Antonio McDyess. In 2009, Mo Williams became another Alabama product to put on an All-Star jersey while in 2010 Gerald Wallace became the first Charlotte Bobcat to earn the honor.

Following his season in the D-League and time spent on the Warriors summer league roster, Hendrix played in Spain's top professional league and earned rookie of the year honors in the league for 2010.

By the end of his career, Whatley had played for six teams. Of these six teams, one was the 1991-92 Western Conference champion Portland Trail Blazers, who went on to lose the NBA Finals in six games versus Whatley's original team, the Chicago Bulls.

ALABAMA AND USA BASKETBALL

In addition to producing top-level NBA talent, Alabama also has a strong history of preparing players for international competition. Former Crimson Tide standouts not only have played professionally overseas, but they also have represented the United States in international tournaments.

Crimson Tide players have participated with various national teams at Pan American Games and the Olympics. Alabama coaching legend C.M. Newton served as president of USA Basketball from 1992-96 and was instrumental in the creation of the "Dream Team" for the 1992 Summer Olympics.
